

Tal-Or Cohen Montemayor, Adv.

CEO & Founder, CyberWell

press@cyberwell.org

Tal-Or Cohen Montemayor, Adv., is the founder and CEO of CyberWell – an independent nonprofit organization develops antisemitism compliance solutions for social media companies and big tech. In 2022, Tal-Or founded and launched CyberWell, the first ever open database of online antisemitism in multiple languages – available at app.cyberwell.org. Today, CyberWell is a Trusted Partner of all major social media platforms, leveraging data and technology to in order to close enforcement and policy gaps online and in digital platforms

Tal-Or has led a variety of open-source intelligence research projects in the space, utilizing the latest methodologies and technologies in big data management, machine learning, and lexicon development,. She holds expertise in online antisemitism, social media hate speech policies, extremism, and hate crime legislation.

Tal-Or has spoken at prominent conferences and forums, including the US State Department’s Symposium on Collaborative Action against Online Antisemitism, the Inter-Parliamentary Task Force to Combat Online Antisemitism, the Eradicate Hate Global Summit, the IAC National Summit, Tel Aviv University’s Cyber Week, and more. She has also written op-eds for USA Today, the Algemeiner, and the Jerusalem Post and been featured in global publications such as Politifact, Wired, Axios, the Telegraph, Rolling Stone, Medium, and the National Post.

In 2025 Tal-Or was the Loebenberg Illuminate and Advocate Award Recipient, honored by the Florida Holocaust Museum for her work with CyberWell.

A Reichman University (IDC Herzliya) magna cum laude graduate of Government and Law and a member of the Israel Bar Association, Tal-Or worked in the business and web intelligence space at a boutique consulting firm in Tel Aviv prior to launching CyberWell in 2022.